

Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
Preface	xiii
1 Preliminaries	1
1.1 Review	1
1.2 Decision theory	8
1.3 Discussion	16
1.4 Exercises	17
1.5 Further reading	18
2 Strategy-Proof Collective Choice	19
2.1 Strategy-proofness on finite sets	20
2.2 Application: The amendment rule	29
2.3 Strategy-proofness and Arrovian aggregation	30
2.4 Single-peaked preferences	33
2.5 Application: The amendment rule revisited	51
2.6 Strategy-proofness in the spatial model	52
2.7 Application: The issue-by-issue rule	60
2.8 Separable preferences	62
2.9 Discussion	65
2.10 Exercises	66
2.11 Further reading	67
3 Implementable Collective Choice	69
3.1 Mechanisms and equilibria	70
3.2 The Revelation Principle	74
3.3 Nash implementation	77
3.4 Application: Monotonicity of electoral rules	90
3.5 Quasi-linear preferences	94

3.6	Application: Collective action	104
3.7	Discussion	105
3.8	Exercises	109
3.9	Further reading	110
4	Binary Agendas	113
4.1	Binary agendas and sophisticated voting	114
4.2	Equilibrium outcomes of binary agendas	128
4.3	Application: Agenda independence	138
4.4	Discussion	141
4.5	Exercises	144
4.6	Further reading	146
5	Spatial Voting in Committees	147
5.1	Issue-by-issue voting in the spatial model	148
5.2	Application: Committees and cabinets	158
5.3	Endogenous agendas	166
5.4	Application: Sophisticated sincerity	184
5.5	Discussion	186
5.6	Exercises	188
5.7	Further reading	190
6	Legislative Bargaining	193
6.1	A basic framework	194
6.2	Bargaining over distributions	204
6.3	Application: Pork barrel politics	221
6.4	Bargaining over policy	224
6.5	Application: Coalition government formation	244
6.6	Discussion	248
6.7	Exercises	250
6.8	Further reading	251
7	Two-Candidate Elections	253
7.1	Electoral equilibrium and the core	254
7.2	Application: Ideological convergence	259
7.3	Equilibrium in multidimensional spaces	262
7.4	Application: Progressive taxation	280
7.5	Probabilistic voting	282
7.6	Application: Director's Law	289
7.7	Policy-motivated candidates	293

7.8	Application: Ideological divergence	301
7.9	Turnout	304
7.10	Discussion	322
7.11	Exercises	328
7.12	Further reading	330
8	Multicandidate Elections	333
8.1	Sincere voting in multicandidate elections	335
8.2	Application: Comparing electoral rules	342
8.3	Strategic voting	344
8.4	Application: Duverger's Law	352
8.5	Candidate entry	353
8.6	Application: Duverger and divergence	380
8.7	Discussion	382
8.8	Exercises	388
8.9	Further reading	389
9	Legislative Elections	391
9.1	Elections, government and policy	392
9.2	Application: Representative legislatures	413
9.3	Discussion	415
9.4	Exercises	416
9.5	Further reading	417
10	Summary and Conclusions	419
10.1	Retrospective	421
10.2	A conclusion	427
	Bibliography	429
	Index	445