

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	I

Character Is Destiny

1. A Child with a Garden, 1872–1889	11
2. Apprenticeship, 1893–1899	24
3. Widening Horizon	37
4. London–Berlin	48
5. The Aberdeens, Scotland, Ireland, 1904–1908	61
6. Two Jobs for Life, I: The School for Social Work, 1907–1913	68
7. Two Jobs for Life, II: Officer of the International Council; Canada and First Glimpse of U.S.A.	81
8. Brief Harvest before the Storm	89
9. “The Evidence of Things Not Seen,” 1914	101
10. Patriotism Is Not Enough, 1914–1916	105
11. In the War Office, 1917–1919	112
12. Fourteen Years of Democracy, I: Years of Chaos, 1919–1924	121
13. Fourteen Years of Democracy, II: My Foreign Affairs, 1920–1933	133
14. Fourteen Years of Democracy, III: Social Reconstruction, 1924–1929	150
15. Fourteen Years of Democracy, IV: Then Came the Collapse	159
16. The Golden Ring of Friendship	165
17. The Stream of Lava	173

18. The Mystery of Individual Adjustments	181
19. A Spy Stands behind You	188
20. Exit Modern Woman	191
21. The Strong and the Weak	201
22. God and Caesar	209
23. The Pastors . . . Martin Niemöller	214
24. New Lease on Life	220
Appendix A. The Significance of the Women's Movement for Social Life	231
Appendix B. The Revolution of the Mother	239
Appendix C. Preface to an Early Version of Salomon's Autobiography	247
Notes	249