

Contents

Abbreviations and Acronyms	ix
Authors and Conference Participants	xi
Preface	xv

Part I

Introduction and Conceptual Issues

1	Introduction Christine Breining-Kaufmann and Michelle Foster	3
2	Reflections on the Possible Research Agenda for Exploring the Relationship between Human Rights Norms and International Trade Rules John H. Jackson	19
3	Human Rights, Markets and Economic Welfare: Constitutional Functions of the Emerging UN Human Rights Constitution Ernst-Ulrich Petersmann	29
4	International Trade and Human Rights: An Economic Perspective Alan O. Sykes	69
5	Governance, Trade and Human Rights Thomas Cottier	93

Part II

The Intersection of the International Trade Regime and International Human Rights Law: Institutional and Procedural Aspects

6	Safeguarding the Legitimacy of the Multilateral Trading System: The Role of Human Rights Law Caroline Dommen	121
7	Functional Distinction or Bilingualism? Human Rights and Trade: The UN Human Rights System Stefanie Grant	133
8	TRIPS and Human Rights: Preliminary Reflections Frederick M. Abbott	145

9	A Human Rights Approach to the WTO's TRIPS Agreement Simon Walker	171
10	The WTO Dispute Settlement and Human Rights Gabrielle Marceau	181

Part III

The Regional Experience of Human Rights and Trade

11	Trade and Human Rights in European Union Law: Linkages in the Case-Law of the European Court of Justice Piet Eeckhout	261
12	Comments on the European Union: Transparency and Human Rights Eric Stein	285
13	Trade and the European Convention on Human Rights Walter Kälin	289
14	The Use of Trade Instruments in the Pursuit of Human Rights: European Foreign Policy Krista Nadakavukaren Schefer	305
15	International Trade and Human Rights in Africa: A Comment on Conceptual Linkages Sisule Fredrick Musungu	321
16	Integrating Trade and Human Rights in the Americas Frank J. Garcia	329
17	Unilateralism and Multilateralism in U.S. Human Rights Laws Affecting International Trade Joel P. Trachtman	357