

Contents

Introduction	1
<hr/>
PART 1: Challenges International Students Face	7
Chapter 1: Adapting to University Life and the Larger Community Culture	9
Reflective Questions	26
<hr/>
PART 2: The Basic Phases of Cultural Adaptation	27
Chapter 2: Phase One: Preparing to Leave	29
 Next Stop: USA—A Student from Japan Prepares to Study Abroad	29
 Anticipating Paradise—A Student from Niger Has Lofty Expectations	31
 Sad Farewell—A Student from Indonesia Leaves His Extended Family	32
Chapter 3: Phase Two: Initial Experiences	34
 Bedazzled—A Student from South Korea Is Quickly Smitten with America	34
 Unforgettable Ride—A Student from Pakistan Is Scared Stiff on the New York Subway	36
 My Hand's Up, and It's My Turn!—A Student from Britain Feels Ignored in Class	38
 Huh? What? Excuse Me?—A Student from Taiwan Student Struggles to Comprehend	40
 Misunderstanding on Taylor Street—A Mother-in-Law from China Learns about Morning Exercise and the Police	41

Chapter 4: Phase Three: Increasing Interaction and Challenges	43
▨ Living with an American Family—A Student from Japan Recognizes Cultural Cues and Changes His Habits	44
▨ Telephone Misconnections—An American Host and a Student from Hong Kong Realize Cultural Barriers to Taking Phone Messages	46
▨ The Innocent Lie—A Japanese Student’s Lie to Preserve Harmony Backfires with a Plain-Talking American	49
▨ Life with a Crude American—A Student from Costa Rica Copes with a Tactless Roommate	50
▨ Tongue-Tied—A Student from Taiwan Struggles to Overcome Her Fear of Using English in Front of Her American Classmates	52
Chapter 5: Phase Four: Culture Shock	55
▨ What’s Happened to Roger?—An American Student Sees Behavioral Changes in Her Malaysian Boyfriend	56
▨ Stranger at My Door—A Married Indian Student’s Feeling of Isolation Sparks Her Wild Imagination	59
Chapter 6: Phase Five: Adaptation	63
▨ More Than Just Studying in America—A Student from Taiwan Overcomes Culture Shock	64
▨ The Nursing Home—A Student from Taiwan Adopts a Grandpa at a Nursing Home	68
▨ Medieval Art: Exceeding My Expectations—A Student from China Surpasses Her Academic Expectations	71
Reflective Questions	75
<hr/>
PART 3: Beyond Phases: The Complexity of Cultural Adaptation	77
Chapter 7: Regression and Immediate Shock	79
▨ Meatball Sub—A Student from Indonesia Finds Herself Experiencing Renewed Culture Shock	79
▨ From Day One—A Student from Saudi Arabia Is Jolted by U.S. Culture as Soon as He Arrives	85
Chapter 8: Values Conflict and Issues	89
▨ Half-Adjusted—A Student from Kenya Questions Her Identity as Her Emotions Straddle Two Countries	89
▨ A Noisy Neighbor and Racial Slurs—A Student from Niger Feels Constant Animosity in His Apartment Building	91
▨ “She Looking Good!”—A Student from Grenada Struggles with What It Means to Be Overweight	93
▨ A Different Concept of Time—A Student from Saudi Arabia Is Challenged by a Different Culturally Based Concept of Time	95
Reflective Questions	97

PART 4: Behavior That Can Encumber Successful Adaptation 99

Chapter 9: Complaining and Avoiding 101

- ▧ Americans Are Boring—A Student from Germany Complains That Conversations with Americans Lack Substance 102
- ▧ Kimchi—A Student from South Korea Avoids Her American Roommate after a Confrontation about Food 103
- ▧ A Secret Miserable Life—The Problems of a Student from Benin Drive Him into Becoming Reclusive 106

Chapter 10: Expecting Others to Adapt and Withdrawing into the Expatriate Community 108

- ▧ Hey Lady! In My Culture We Don't Do That!—A Student from Nigeria Expects Americans to Adjust to Him 108
- ▧ The Invitation—A Student from China Tries to Convince Her Annoyed American Friend That Yes Can Mean No 110
- ▧ Dormitory Turnoff—A Student from Thailand Gives up Her Dream of Having American Friends 111

Reflective Questions 115

PART 5: Strategies and Successful Adaptation 117

Chapter 11: Humor and Optimism 119

- ▧ Face Covered—A Married Couple from Syria Teaches a Child about Their Culture 119
- ▧ Post 9/11—A Student from Saudi Arabia Keeps an Open, Understanding Heart toward American Suspicions 121

Chapter 12: Observing and Matching Behaviors 124

- ▧ Do as They Do—A Student from Argentina Imitates North American Ways of Walking, Eating, and More 124
- ▧ Timing Is Everything—An Unsure Student from Japan Laughs When the Audience Laughs at a Comedy Show 127

Chapter 13: Doing and Reflecting 129

- ▧ Living with a Middle-Aged American Couple—A Reflective Student-Boarder from Taiwan Alters Her Social-Interactive Behavior 130
- ▧ A Polite Confrontation—A Student from Colombia Confronts Her American Roommate 133
- ▧ “Give Me Five, Bro!”—A Student from South Korea Becomes Aware of His Prejudices and Makes New Friends 135
- ▧ The Special Gift—A Student from China Learns about Gift Wrapping and When to Open Presents 138
- ▧ Being Heard—A Hesitant Student from Japan Devises Ways to Join in Class Discussions 140

Chapter 14: Finding Support	143
 The Power of a Study Group—A Student from Taiwan Gains Confidence in Writing and Speaking English	143
 A Talk with My Professor—A Student from Kenya Explains How His Essay Reflects His Cultural Values	146
Reflective Questions	148

PART 6: Home Again—Readapting and Reflections on Living Abroad	151
---	------------

Chapter 15: Problems Readjusting to the Home Culture	153
 Have I Become an Outsider?—A Russian Returnee Questions Her Identity in Her Native Country	153
 Why Are You Still Single?—After 10 Years of Living Abroad, a Korean Returnee Is Faced with Endless Personal Questions	155
 Things Are Different—An English Teacher from Indonesia Changes His Teaching Expectations after He Returns Home	157
 Lost Love—A Student from Thailand Returns Home Early to Discover He Lost His True Love	160
Chapter 16: Awareness	161
 The Right Decision—A Student from Russia Reflects on the Decisions She Made While Studying in the United States	161
 New Awareness—A Student from Kazakhstan Compares American Culture with Her Native Culture	164
Reflective Questions	167
Conclusion	168
References	171