

Contents

Introduction	1
Why This Book?	1
What's in This Book?	3
1. Historical and Theoretical Contexts of Second Language Writing Assessment	5
Why Assessment Matters	8
Assessment: Every Teacher's Job	10
How Is Writing Ability Defined?	13
Good Assessment Defined	14
The Importance of Historical Perspective for L2 Writing Teachers	17
A Brief History of Writing Assessment	19
A History of the Field	25
The Influence of Science and Measurement on L2 Writing Assessment	27
Suggestions for Teachers	30
Suggestions for Further Reading	30
2. An Overview of the Tools of Writing Assessment	31
Purposes for Assessing Writing	32
Rules of Writing Assessment	33
Standards	34
Objectives	38
Reliability	39
Validity	41
Practicality	42
Washback	42
Rubrics	43
Writing Assignments	50
Suggestions for Teachers	55

3. Designing Assignments and Rubrics	56
Personal Experience as a Student	57
Personal Experience as a Teacher	58
Considerations in Designing Assessments	59
Designing Assignment/Assessment Tasks for the Classroom	64
Timed Essays and Prompt Development	64
Criteria Generation	70
Rubric Creation	72
Peer Review and Its Place in Writing Assessment	77
Portfolio Assessment	79
Suggestions for Teachers	86
4. Biases in Writing Assessment: What Are They and What Can We Do about Them?	87
Teacher Bias	89
Teachers' (Assessors') Personality Types	91
Bias Regarding Pedagogy	92
Bias toward Grammar Correctness	98
Peer Bias	104
Administrative Bias	107
Political Bias	111
Suggestions for Teachers	113
Suggestions for Further Reading	114
5. Large-Scale Writing Assessment and Its Influences on L2 Writing	115
An Overview of Large-Scale Writing Tests: Product and Purpose	116
Advantages and Disadvantages of Standardized Tests of Writing	124
The Politics and Business of Assessment	129
The Effect of NCLB Legislation on the L2 Writer	131
Strategies for Making Large-Scale Writing Assessment Work	133
Suggestions for Teachers	136
Suggestions for Further Reading	136

6. Innovative Technology in the L2 Writing Classroom	137
Technology in the Classroom	137
Using Synchronous and Asynchronous Technology for Assessing Writing	138
The Impact of Technology on L2 Writing Assessment ODSP	143
The Dark Side of the Internet: Paper Mills	144
Combating Internet Plagiarism	146
Outsourcing of Grading	147
Suggestions for Teachers	148
7. Looking Beyond: What Can We Expect of Writing Assessment in the Future? The Machine Scoring of Essays	156
Machine Scoring of Essays Defined	157
Origins of the Machine Scoring of Essays	161
Major Purveyors of Machine Scoring	164
A Closer Look: MY Access!	167
Writing as Meaning Making	171
Positive Views	172
Negative Views	173
Professional Claims	174
Truth and Consequences	176
Suggestions for Teachers	179
Suggestions for Further Reading	179
Epilogue: Where Do We Go from Here?	180
ELL Population in the United States	180
Teacher Training	181
The Uses of Technology for Assessment	182
Large-Scale Assessment/Accountability	184
Final Thoughts	185
Appendix 1	186
References	189
Index	206