

Contents

Introduction 1

Fame • The Purpose of This Book • Two Basic Distinctions

Part One. Understanding the Motive

1. The Nature of the Fame Motive 7

The Need to Belong • The Fame Motive as a Consequence of Rejection • Instances • Self-Images of Future Fame • A Never-Ending Desire

2. Millions of People Want Fame 22

*In the United States • Around the World •
Ignorance, Denial, and Repression*

3. Differences among Us in Desire for Fame 34

*Passion, Indifference, and Aversion • Socialization and Social Roles •
Our Gender, Age, and Education*

4. A Tangled Web of Motives 54

*The Familiar Trio: Fame, Money, and Power •
Three Personality Characteristics Similar to the Fame Motive*

Part Two. Choices, Challenges, Changes

Introduction: Changes during the Life Course 67

5. The Source of Fame 73

Fame Is Not Fair • Time and Place • Infamy • Unintended Fame

6. Finding a Path 86

Levels of Honor • Associates and Families • Calls for Attention • Strange and Deviant Acts

- 7. Presentation of Self 104
 - Seven Kinds of Recognition* • Name • Face • Voice
- 8. Creating the Audiences 116
 - The Great Other Place* • Small and Special Groups •
Always Wanting More • How Far Does Fame Travel?
- 9. Making Fame Last 130
 - Early and Late Fame* • Decay of Fame while Alive •
Trying to Stay Famous • Fame after Death
- 10. Coming to the End 149
 - Final Reality* • Trying to Escape • Protecting the Self •
The Damaged Life
- • • •
- Etymology of the Word Fame 169
- What Kind of Famous Person Would You Most Like to Be? 172
- German and Beijing Surveys 174
- Fame in Different Languages 176
- Guinness Book of Records* 178
- Gender, Age, and Education Differences 180
- Preferred Uses of Fame 185
- Notes 187