

Contents 1

Introduction	1
Part One: Contexts	21
ONE
Multicultural Text, Intercultural Performance	23
TWO
Performing Intercultural Memory in the Diasporic Present	44
Part Two: Dramaturgies	65
THREE
Toward a Filipino Canadian Dramaturgy: The Carlos Bulosan Collective	70
FOUR
Indigenous Knowledge, Contemporary Performance: Dramaturgies of Decolonization	86
FIVE
to be dub, female, and black: toward a womban-centred Afro-Caribbean diasporic performance aesthetic	109
Part Three: Mediations	127
SIX
The Modern in Modern Times	130
SEVEN
The Intermedial Intercultural and the Limits of Empathy: Aluna Theatre's Nohayquiensepa with Jessica Riley	152

xvi CONTENTS

EIGHT
Cahoots	176 1
Conclusion	186 1
Appendix 1: The Intercultural Performance Ecology of Toronto	193 1
Appendix 2: List of Artists	205 1
Works Cited	243 1
Index	260 1