

Contents

Acknowledgments	/ ix
Introduction: The Problem of Commercial Expression	/ i
PART I. FOUNDATIONAL CONCEPTS
1. Commercial and Corporate Speech	/ 17
2. The Scope of Commercial Expression	/ 31
3. Why Protect Speech? Four Fundamental Interests	/ 52
PART II. AUTONOMY AND TRUTH
4. Autonomy as a Human Interest	/ 77
5. Brands, Information, and Consumer “Education”	/ 88
6. Advertising and Manipulation	/ 107
7. Tough Love Paternalism	/ 121
8. The Corporate Person	/ 141
PART III. DEMOCRACY AND STABILITY
9. Commercial Democracy	/ 165
10. Commercial Expression and Economic Instability	/ 186
11. Commercial Expression and Environmental Instability	/ 202
Conclusion	/ 223
Notes	/ 233
Bibliography	/ 291
Index	/ 321