

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgments	ix
CHAPTER 1. Majoritarian Cities	I
CHAPTER 2. Patterns of Inequality, Public Attitudes, and the Cases	40
CHAPTER 3. When Political Support Is Not Enough to Reform Urban Schools	69
CHAPTER 4. Focusing Events and the Limits of Law Enforcement Reform	101
CHAPTER 5. “The Number One Issue”? The Struggle for Affordable Housing	131
CHAPTER 6. The Popularity of Gambling Meets the Need for Economic Development	162
CHAPTER 7. Democratic Control in an Impoverished, Segregated Urban School District	188
CHAPTER 8. Politics, Policy, and Inequality in Urban and Metropolitan America	212
Notes	237
References	241
Index	263