

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION: Marvelous History	1
CHAPTER 1: Thinking with the Thalamus: The Rhetoric of Emotional Impairment	20
CHAPTER 2: Domesticated Women and Docile Boys: Lobotomy and Gender in the Popular Press, 1936–1955	42
CHAPTER 3: Someone Else: The Cold War Politics of Personality Change	72
CHAPTER 4: The Rhetorical Return of Lobotomy: The Campaign against Psychosurgery, 1970–1973	106
CHAPTER 5: Not Our Father’s Lobotomy: Memories of Lobotomy in the New Age of Psychosurgery	132
CHAPTER 6: How Weston State Hospital Became the Trans-Allegheny Lunatic Asylum; or, The Birth of Dr. Monster	151
EPILOGUE: Haunted History	175
Notes	179
References	191
Index	215