

LIST OF TABLES

Part I: Theory

1.1. Simulation Goals	6
1.2. Conceptual Framework of World Politics Simulations	12
1.3. Platform-Related Goals and Simulation Types	14
1.4. Boundary-Related Goals and Simulation Types	16
1.5. Interaction-Related Goals and Simulation Types	19
1.6. Media-Related Goals and Simulation Types	20
3.1. Simulation Typology	31
3.2. Typology Applied	38
3.3. Simulation Costs	41

Part II: Implementation

4.1. Simulation Schedule for a Semester Course	53
4.2. Simulation Schedule for a Yearlong Course	54
4.3. Simulation Assignments	55
4.4. Setup Instructions for Participants	64
5.1. Initial and Opening Scenarios	70
5.2. Policy Formation Instructions for Participants	85
6.1. Schedules for World Politics Interactions	100
6.2. World Politics Instructions for Participants	107

Part III: Analysis

7.1. Simulation Overview	114
8.1. Feedback Schedule and Forms	122
8.2. Registration Form	124
8.3. Basic Knowledge Quiz	126
8.4. Policy Formation Form	127
8.5. Breaking News Poll	128
8.6. World Politics Form	129
8.7. Instructions for Participants on Feedback	131
9.1. Debriefing Schedule	135
9.2. Instructions for Participants on Debriefing	139

10.1. Grading Options	142
10.2. Appraising Options for the Simulation Project	143
10.3. Grading Scheme	146
10.4. Simulation Procedures for Skill Development	147
10.5. Appraising Scheme for the Simulation Project	148

Part IV: Conclusions

11.1. Change in Simulation Platform	156
11.2. Change in Simulation Boundaries	157
11.3. Change in Simulation Interactions	158
11.4. Change in Study Efficiency	159

Appendix

A1. Gulf Nuclear Face-to-Face Simulation	164
A2. Middle East Cyber Simulation	165
A3. Palestinian Statehood Hybrid Simulation	167
